

LIQUOR LICENSEES REMINDED NOT TO SELL LIQUOR ON ELECTION DAY

The Liquor Licensing Board of the Cayman Islands advise Licensees that there shall be no selling of intoxicating liquor on Election Day, April 14 during the stated hours.

Mr. Noel Williams, Chairman of the Liquor Licensing Board stated, “ this is a requirement under Section 91 of the Elections Act (2019 Revision), which states no intoxicating liquor shall be sold or given away at any premises in all electoral districts from the opening of the polls and one hour after polls are closed”.

Anyone found breaching the Act, are liable to a fine of $500 or 6 months imprisonment.
